Notes on Filling the Membership Application Form

(*1) A spouse discount is applicable if you are married and your spouse is also a member of JASCA. The discount applies to only one person (i.e., either you or your spouse), and we do not mail Bunkajinurigaku and Japanese Review of Cultural Anthropology to those who receive the discount. Claiming the status of married is at your discretion.

(*2) *2 The member list: JASCA conducts a membership survey once every two years, creates a new member list for the following year, and sends it to members (distribution is currently on hold). Items listed on the member list are as follows: 1. name, 2. affiliated institution, 3. home contact information (address, phone), 4. affiliated institution contact information (address, phone), 5. e-mail address, 6. research topics, and 7. research fields. Of these, 3, 4, and 5 are not mandatory for you to list, so please check the items that you do not wish to disclose.

If any information declared at the time of this membership application changes, you can modify it at the time of the member survey once every two years. However, if your mailing address, affiliated institution, or e-mail address changes, please inform the JASCA office (at the address below) as soon as possible.

Notes on the Application Process

Please mail this application form to the JASCA office.
